Fairfax Public School News

2025 Term 1 Week 9

Looking Back

NAPLAN is done and dusted for another year. I was extremely impressed with our Year 3 students. They showed great resilience and persistence. It was wonderful to see students doing their best. MaxFM - a fantastic job students - sharing your news clearly and confidently.

Last day

Term 1 11.4.25

Looking Forward

Move your Emotions - We have two remaining sessions with Mrs Hancock this term. Students are really enjoying the activities promoting noticing and controlling emotions. Congratulations to students for your excellent behaviour. Mrs Hancock loves visiting Fairfax!

Term / Week 9

Harmony Week

- learning hello in different languages
- learning an Irish song, "Rattlin' Bog"
- reading "The Magical Suitcase" about a refugee
- cooking Mexican food - tacos!

Students have made excellent progress in their learning about the importance of 0 as a placeholder. Jack and Bentley nailed 0's up to 1000 and Anna, Libby and Larah have shown their understanding to hundreds of thousands. Our explicit teaching using I Do, We Do, You Do ensures student mastery of a new concept.

English - Yahoo Creek

We are now learning to write a persuasive text using language features that we learnt from reading Yahoo Creek. Vocabulary we are learning: genre, authority, modality
